

"Rock Around the Sixties Show"

A musical trip through the sixties featuring Hit Makers

VANITY FARE & THE HONEYCOMBS

Hosted by Richard Headingley (formerly of Chicory Tip)

VANITY FARE are one of the most popular 60's bands still touring today having sold over five million records Worldwide with two gold discs and no fewer than six top twenty hits across the world during the 60's & 70's.

Since those halcyon days Vanity Fare have built a reputation as one of the foremost bands on the 60's circuit.

Their superb harmony vocals and supreme musicianship having secured their longevity, not to mention their vibrant stage show.

They will be performing live their hits such as, Hitchin' a Ride, Early in the Morning, I Live For the Sun and Better By Far, plus many more songs that influenced them over their long career

Joining them on stage will be the Joe Meek inspired sound of THE HONEYCOMBS featuring original guitarist & vocalist Martin Murray. They burst onto the scene in 1964 as part of the Joe Meek revolution when their first single "Have I The Right" became a massive UK number one hit and held the top slot for over 3 weeks. "Have I The Right" shot into the top five in a further 28 countries and was followed by many more hits.

Richard Headingley, former singer with Chicory Tip (Son of my Father) completes the line-up as the shows congenial host ...

Re-live the magic of this golden era, and experience all the hits plus much more.....
